PUBLISHED BY THE SENIOR CLASS OF
PRESBYTERIAN COLLEGE
CLINTON, S. D.

Foreword

IN THIS BOOK we have endeavored to store many of the memories that we desire to keep with us throughout our lives. Our short life here has been a pleasant one, we have innumerable associations and affiliations that we do not like to give up. If we succeed in our work, we must re-ignite, in future years, those endearments of our youth that we strive to perpetuate.

It is with sincere regret that the faculty and student-body of Presbyterian College bid goodbye to Dr. Hoy. By his patience and sincerety, and by his sympathetic manner he has won the devotion of all his students. May this separation truly be au revoir.

Adolph Theodore Fant

To the memory of one, dear to the hearts of the students of Presbyterian College, we dedicate this page of the PaC SaC. The memory of Mr. Fant lingers in the lives he touched as a monument. His quiet and reserved manner made many friends who mourn his death.

She's dear to me, this old P. C.
Where every day is happy.*

Ref.

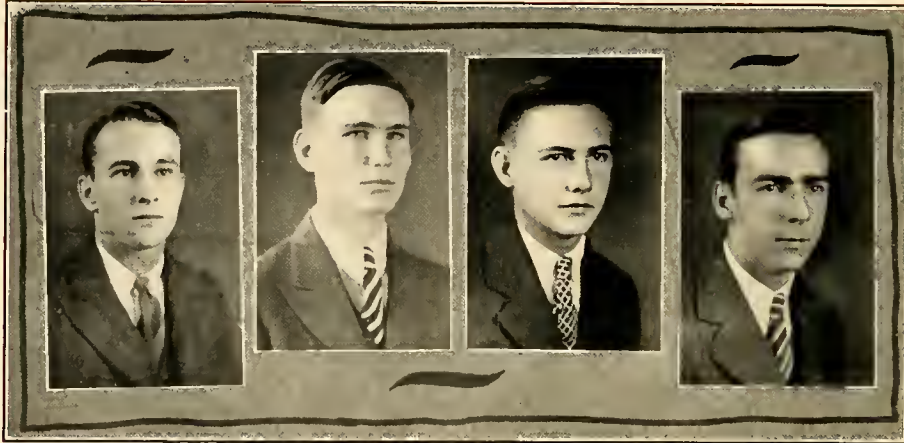

*P. C., P. C., how dear thou art to me.
P. C., P. C., we'll ever be true to thee.
P. C., P. C., we'll ever sing thy praise.
We'll sing thy praise thru all our days.
All hail to thee.*

*All honor to thy learned walls,
Thy Campus and historic halls
We'll sing thy praise thru all our days,
Our well loved Alma Mater.*

Senior Class Poem

*Four years are like a swallow
That flits before the eye;
Before you really comprehend
You find those years flown by.*

*And if you will remember,
You can but realize
That now you see the facts of life
With stronger, clearer eyes.*

*How great a debt you owe them,
To those that cherish you!
I cannot think of metaphor
To tell what they are due.*

*And in your praise often—
'Tis easy to forget—
Include your worthy instructors:
You owe them a debt.*

*You're out to seek your fortune;
An El Dorada gleams.
May you with sweat upon your brow
Make true your fondest dreams.*

*Then dream awhile and ponder,
And plan awhile and smile,
Then off on the long adventure
That leads o'er many a mile.*

Senior Class History

ACHIEVEMENT—such is the history of the Class of '29. This is a class that has done things, not so much because of any unusual ability, although we are an exceptional class, as because of the support we give one another and the loyalty with which we back the class.

On the football field we have furnished more than our share, on the basketball court we have done our part, and on the baseball diamond we overstep again the part that we must in honor uphold. No P. C. team has been complete without a '29 on it since we came to the campus, and P. C. teams owe much to the men that have come from our ranks.

In the oratorical contests of the college we have done our part. In the Glee Club we have had members, in the ranks of the assistants in academic work we have had representatives, and in student body affairs we have had not merely participants, but leaders.

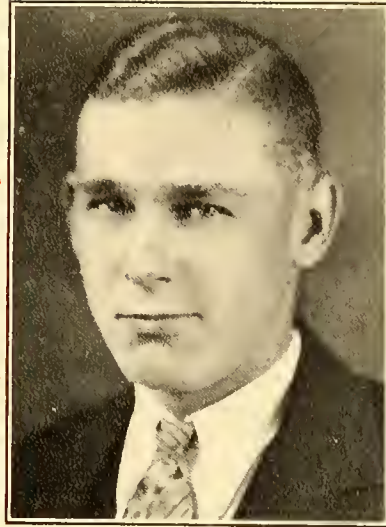

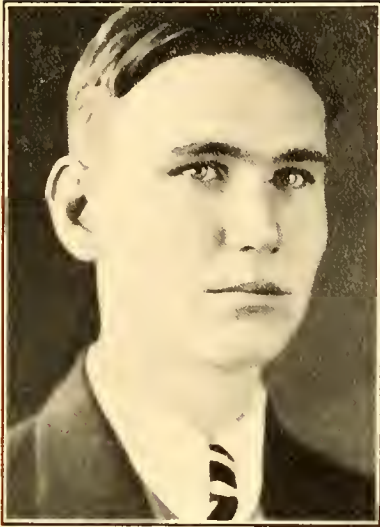

The classroom has never seen '29 fail, and the four years we have spent within these walls have been years of hard work and years of endeavor.

There is no need recounting the deeds we have done or the ideals for which we have stood. Like the classes before us, we have the old P. C. Spirit and are striving to uphold the honor and traditions that this beloved institution enjoys.

Let it suffice to say that, as we approach the goal of the long race, we feel that we can say, "We have run a good race, we have fought a good fight."

SCENE.....A Night Club

CHARACTERS.....Class of '29, P. C.

HELLO everybody. I'm awfully glad to see you here tonight. Let's sit at this table and see who's here among these shining faces—Look, there's Frank Roper and Jug Gaston, the old bachelors, over there at that little table to the right. As usual they're by themselves. Gosh, how those birds do hate women! Well, no wonder, they think all women are after their money they made on their new book, "The Phychology of Love." It's some book, too; selling like hot cakes—Roy Hogrefe certainly picked a fast bunch for his stag party. He hasn't done a bit of work since he inherited that bank-roll. There's Paul Milus, Wall Street broker; Pete Dunlap, the cartoonist; J. R. Blue, Senator from South Carolina; Sal Latimer, editor of Whiz Bunk, and H. D. Montgomery, Professor of English at Columbia University. They all have bachelor apartments in Whit Jordan's new building. He rents them only to bachelors.—But did you know that Jack O'Neal has opened another branch of his baby clinics here? His motto is, "One in every home by 1950." Yes, that's his wife over there with Arnold Marshall, the horticulturist, who has made almost as many outstanding discoveries as Burbank. I don't really know if its serious, but if it is—woe unto Jack, 'cause you know we just can't understand his power over women!—Isn't the music good tonight? Why, it's a new orchestra. And that's Joe Shirley Anderson playing that hot trumpet and Spoony Dunlap with the trombone. The violinst with the bushy hair looks exactly like Hugh Kolb and J. R. B. Martin is just tearing that piano to pieces. Of course Miller Huggins would be the director.—But who's the exhibition dancer doing the tango? Gee, he's good. If they'd just turn on more lights—look, it's Louis Holleman!—Isn't that a beautiful woman coming in the door with J. M. and T. E. Davis? They're in the law business now, specializing in divorcees; that must be one of their clients.—Do you see that trio at the third table to the left? That's Woods, Cole and Fewell, the makers of all kinds of stoves and heaters. And speaking of heaters, Elly Brunson has just invented a new type of stove that works fine. It's called the "Brunson Burner."—Sh—I musn't talk too loud but the waiter at this table is Shiek

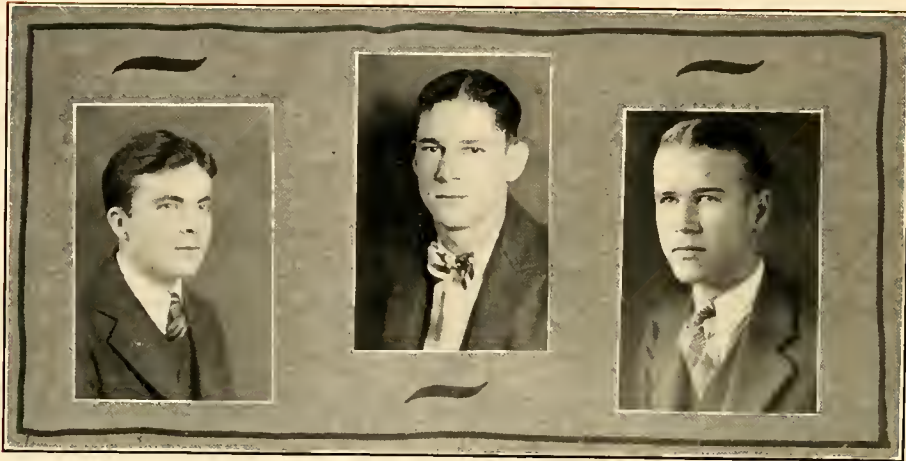

Fraser. Poor Sheik studied German so hard that he lost his weak mind and now all he can think or say is "Ich Weiss Nicht."—But just look at the head waiter in all his pomp and splendor. Yes, it's Bill Weldon, but you know the manager has had to reprimand him a good many times because instead of handing the customer the menu, he drops it in the chair behind their backs; he thinks it's the Greenville News.—Oh, Bill Adair? Why, he has a most up-to-date barber shop for men, in Clinton. Of course he just manages the place while Francis Hart and Bill Melmis do the real work.—That was awfully good of our new President of the United States, P. Drake, to appoint J. L. Anderson head of the Navy, wasn't it? And he gave the Postmaster's position in Laurens to R. W. Johnson.—McHugh has had a hard time with all his poems being rejected, but he still maintains that he'll rival Edgar Allen Poe someday.—Don't mention it, but J. T. N. Keels and W. H. Pruitt are running a speak-easy just around the corner, but they cater only to the rich, such as T. R. Campbell, Mayor of New York City, J. L. Russell, who is now connected with Red Smith in the most fashionable beauty shop in all New York; and Bill Woodward, the big jeweler.—And Ed Martin is still in the taxi business from Clinton to Rock Hill. Isabelle's daughter rides with him a good deal.—Do you know who the preacher is at Pelzer? Well, it's Knotty-Head McDavid. He's building a magnificent cathedral now and Latimer McKenzie is to be the organist. Sue McQuiston is choir director.—Joe Owens and Spence Elliott are running a garage in Winnsboro. Of course Eve is with Joe, while Spence has just gotten a divorce and remarried.—I suppose you knew that Ansel Gaston's football team won the National Championship yesterday? He's head coach at Stanford and they had to play against Cork Barnwell's team from California. It was a mean game.—Oh, there's Frank Pearce and Bartow Shaw. Frank's in the Legislature in South Carolina and Potty is running a hosiery mill at Lane's, S. C.—Knight Thompson and L. A. Wallace are just mopping up with their air lines to Europe. G. H. Mellwain is pilot for the largest ship.—Have you seen O. C. Martin's new play? It's been playing to packed houses for the last week and it looks as if it will break all records for his splendid productions.—Look! Everyone is standing up and cheering. What can the excitement be? Oh, there comes the screen's two greatest lovers—Adger Mack Carter and Cotton Neighbors.

Junior Class Poem

*We have found comradeship,
Laughed, fought and worked;
Smiled and stumbled, and smiled again.
The years are not so long—
They pass swiftly.
Age brings a mellowness to dreams,
And youth is just a storehouse
While they ripen.
Trouble is nothing—
A grain of sand in your shoe
That seems so big
And yet is just a little thing.
Three years—ah! what are they?
Years of work? No! Years of play
With laughing water
Gurgling around your toes.*

*We've found a bright blue sky,
We've laughed the clouds away,
Come let us sing together—
We're Seniors for a day.*

Junior Class History

On the morning of September 7th, 1926, there assembled in the Chapel 100 Freshmen, full of hope and ambition, who were destined to play a large part in the history of the College. To attempt to write a complete history of the activities of these men would be a difficult task, and an impossible one in the time and space allotted. Therefore we can enumerate only the most important achievements of the Class of '30 as we make a hasty retrospect of the three years spent at Presbyterian College.

Immediately after their arrival a large number answered Coach McMillian's call for candidates for P. C.'s "Frosh" football team. After the football season was over, an equally large number reported for basketball. This team won second place in the State race, winning fifteen out of the eighteen games played. The class also had its baseball and track teams.

The class was represented well in literary activities, taking part in debates, as well as in the work of the student publications.

As the class assembled again, early in September 1927, for its second year a number of vacancies were noticed. But what a contrast between the first days of the previous year and the first day of the Sophomore year!

Our class was well represented on the varsity football team. A large portion of the varsity basketball team was made up of men from our class, and they brought honor to the Sophomore Class by their consistent outstanding playing all season. In baseball also, the Sophomores played an important role.

Our men also began to forge ahead in forensic, scientific, musical, literary, and journalistic circles, winning distinction in all these activities.

On September 7th, 1928 the Class once more assembled, but again a number of vacancies were noticed. In spite of the fact that the number has been reduced to one half it is by no means indicative of a loss of interest or spirit.

Again the call to the gridiron lured a number of us, and we have given a good account of ourselves in all games played. In basketball we were again well represented, and the men of the Class of '30 brought great honor to their Alma Mater by their outstanding work on the "hardwood." Although baseball and track have not been finished, it can easily be predicted that there will be a number of men of the Class of '30 contributing much to the success of these sports.

With one more year of residence at Presbyterian College, our class bids fair to leave behind a record of achievement which the members of the Class of '30 may well be proud of.

The stars in their distance abiding,
 Stare down on us tonight;
 And we hope that the day, in hiding
 Will bring us the cheer of the light.

We're leaving the valley between
 The yesterday dead, and the glow
 Of morrow that's soon to be seen,
 A light, beginning to grow.

We're dreaming, our journey half done,
 With two years of trudging behind.
 To finish the race we've begun,
 To usefulness glad and sublime.

The world has a million dreamers,
 They share but a single dream.
 We see unnumbered shadows
 Flee from a lonely gleam.

Yes, there's a dream we're dreaming
 And a game we're playing too.
 And the rules of the game we're learning
 For life and the after-view.

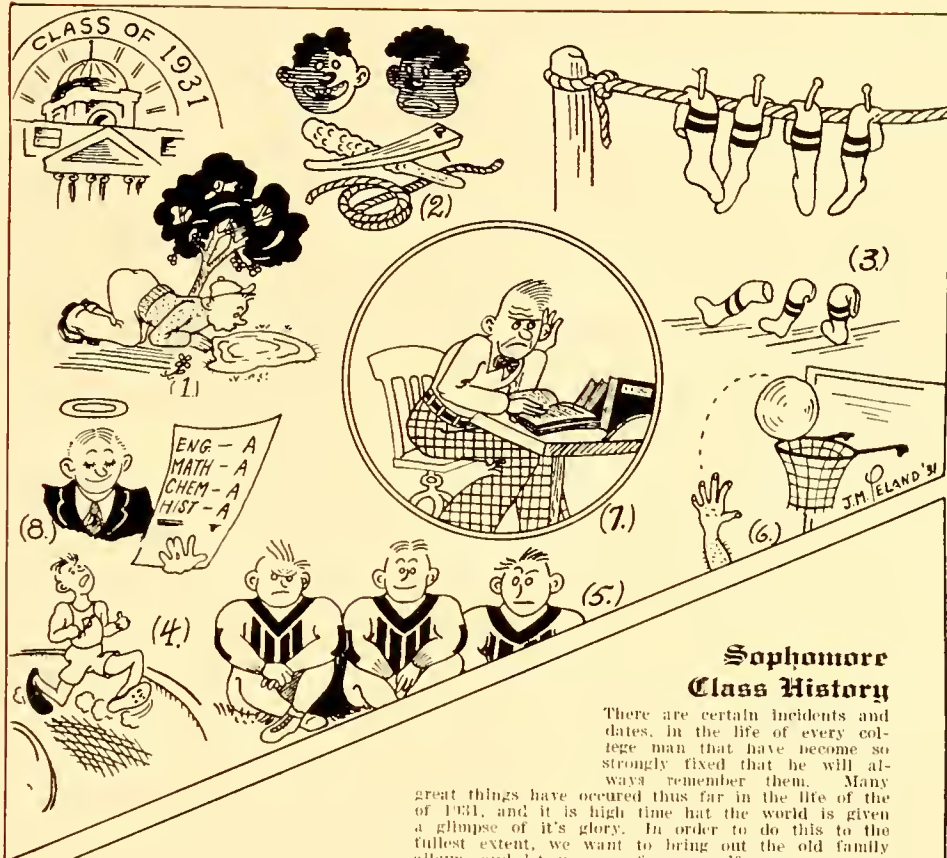

There's a picture we dream to paint
 And the colors are soft and fair.
 But it's not a zealot or saint,
 But a friend we love that's dear.

There is something our hearts are saying,
 We'd word it for you if we could;
 But the sound, as of angels praying
 Might never be understood.

As class after class parts asunder
 The dream lingers here for the years.
 What do we know of blunders,
 What of sorrow and sighs, and tears.

Sophomore Class History

There are certain incidents and dates, in the life of every college man that have become so strongly fixed that he will always remember them. Many great things have occurred thus far in the life of the of 1931, and it is high time that the world is given a glimpse of it's glory. In order to do this to the fullest extent, we want to bring out the old family album, and let you see for yourself.

In Figure 1, we see little "Ruff" Sessions, the Freshman leaning over the pool of knowledge to drink deeply of it's waters, while right over his head sands dingle-berries all ready to be plucked. Such is life but he will learn.

Figure 2, is a reminder of that most glorious night of the battle of (rat run), but we have not forgotten the "second Manassa".

Now gentle readers do not think that the whole of our Freshman year was spent in torture. It really wasn't torture at all, for our (teachers) the sophs, did it all for our good, and in that old P. C. Spirit. (I would like to show you a picture of that spirit, but it was so bashful that it would not pose.)

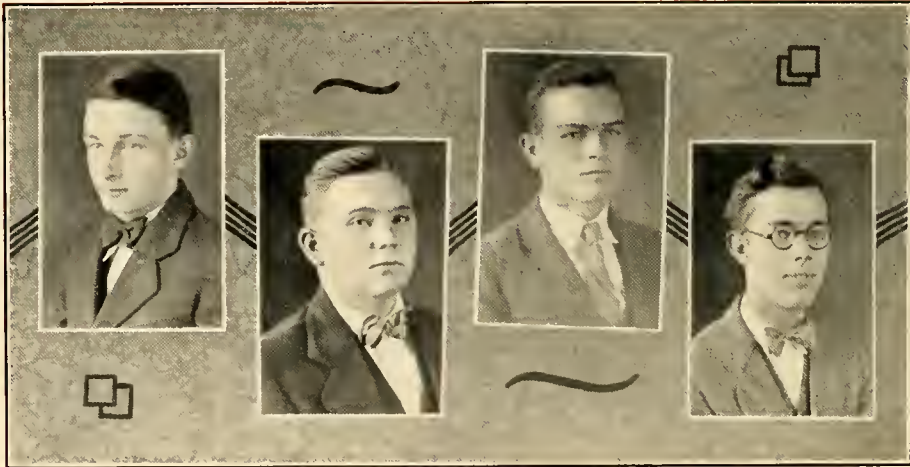

Figure 3 shows us a true hero worship of a little boy for his older brother. Here we see the Blue Sox gazing with admiration and envy up at the line where hang their glorious and noted big brothers. These little Sox made a good record for themselves in all athletic events. Especially was this so in track. In figure 4, we catch a glimpse of one of our speed-demons coming in on the home stretch.

That first year of ours was mighty successful, and we enjoyed it all, but after a summer in which to think over our numerous mistakes (D's, E's, etc) we came back with the determination for even a greater record. We have done this and I have a few more pictures to prove it. Figure 5 shows a few of our great men which our class gave to football. Figure 6 is just a sample of the way the sophs have or playing the game called "drop them through the hoop."

Our phenomenal success has been a thing of wonderment to many, but the answer, (so simple that even a child can understand), figure 7 gives the secret of it all-- hard work, gallons of mid-night oil, deep concentration etc. Then last but not least, figure 8 gives us an example that will remind us of our true reason for our years here at old P. C.-- yes we love our teachers.

*An when we're finished here
And left P. C. so dear,
We hope the people along the way,
Will then be able, once more to say:
They fought the fight as best they could
To keep P. C. where she's always stood.*

Bailey Memorial Stadium

This Memorial Stone, bearing the name of William Cyrus Bailey, was uncovered in an impressive ceremony between halves of the Mercer-Presbyterian College Game last September. The erection of these stands, seating 3,000, was made possible by a generous donation of $10,000 by W. J. Bailey of this city, supplemented by contributions from many other friends and alumni of the College.

Athletics

WALTER A. JOHNSON

Head Coach

Coach Walter A. Johnson has been with Presbyterian College since its Athletic Infancy. He came as a young man about a dozen years ago, and started out with the same aggressiveness and geniality that he is now famous for. Quoting one writer: "We can never say enough of his virtues. His faults are few. It is one of the priceless heritages of Presbyterian College Graduates to go into the world and recall and read of the achievements which P. C. has reached in the field of sports under the guiding hand of Walter Johnson."

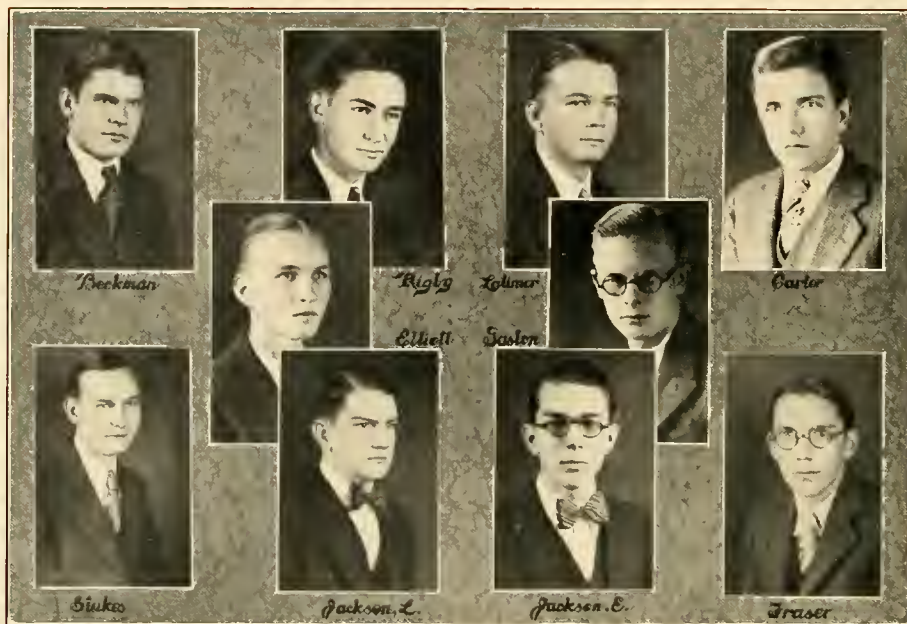

LONNIE McMILLIAN

Freshman Coach

Assistant Coach Lonnie McMillian has charge of all Freshman teams except baseball, and in addition he is coach of varsity track. His reputation does not date from his acceptance of the position at P. C., for while receiving his education at Presbyterian he won distinction in football, baseball and basketball. In several of these sports, notably football and basketball in which he never failed to scintillate, Lonnie McMillian achieved a position on the mythical All-State Teams.

His performance since completing his College course has shown that his laurels were won by thorough knowledge of every game he entered. He is conceded to be one of the brainiest coaches in "these parts."

VARSIITY FOOTBALL SQUAD

Standing: Coach Johnson, Martin, Beckman, Green, J., Weldon, Owens, Neighbors, Greene, T., Barnwell (Captain), Brunson, Hogrefe, Martin, J., Cole, Dunlap, W., Lynn, Dunlap, O., Martin, O. C., Pearce, Gaston (Manager).
Kneeling: Kolly, Means, Ketchin, McQuiston, Campbell, Ketchum, McQueen, Young, Ritchie, Smith, Walker, Ferrene, Wyatt, K., Clinton, Dunlap, O., Rigby (Assistant Manager).

FOOTBALL

BARNWELL, Captain; Guard

Roy Barnwell has played on P. C. Football teams three years. He has always been like a tiger with his aggressive tactics. In this, his Senior year, Barnwell has been both a valuable man and a good Captain.

KOLB, Guard

Kolb is another man who has seen three years of action under the Garnet and Blue. He has always been especially strong on the defense—a determined man who has shown steady improvement.

NEIGHBORS, Tackle

“Cotton” Neighbors has repeatedly demonstrated the wonderful type of football of which he is capable. A good football physique, and a thorough knowledge of his position have combined to make him one of the most powerful men on the team.

HOGREFE, Halfback

Hogrefe is one of the fleetest backs P. C. has ever had. He is a brilliant man on end runs, which are his specialty; and his sure tackling has saved the day on more than a few occasions. His eighty-yard run in the Newberry game is one that will not soon be forgotten.

PEARCE, Halfback

Pearce's unfortunate injury in the Newberry game deprived the team of a reliable halfback. Frank did his part well and was always ready whenever he was called on to carry the ball. The team will miss him next year.

L. DUNLAP, Quarterback

This is Dunlap's third year with the squad. His hard work, his speed and his passing arm have all contributed to the distinction he has won with Coach Johnson's men.

One Hundred Fifty-eight

BECKMAN, Guard; Captain-Elect

Beckman has proved strong both on offense and defense. His record for two years of service are enough to indicate that he will have to be watched next season. Beckman is expected to be a great leader as Captain of the Blue Stockings for 1930.

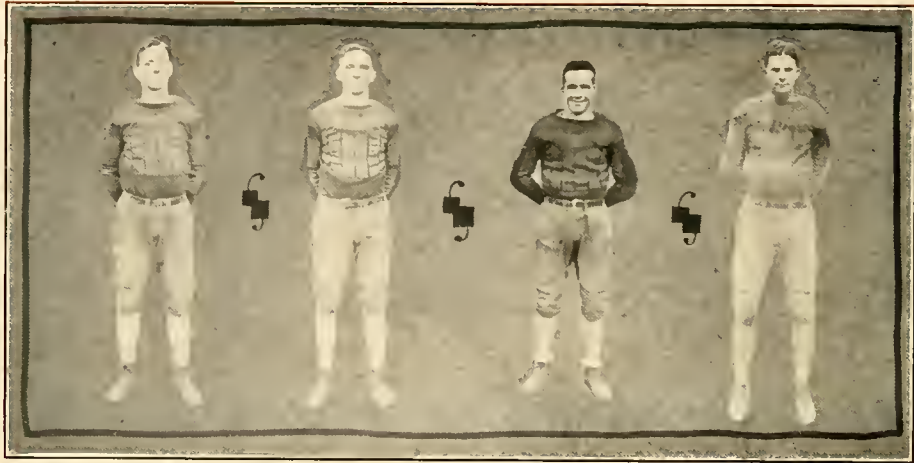

BRUNSON, Center

Brunson is a reliable center who never makes a mistake in the signals. He won the confidence of his team mates for the capable way in which he handled this difficult position. Brunson has always been one of the hardest workers on the squad.

OWENS, Halfback

Joe Owens has been the backbone of the team with his long, accurate punting. It is impossible to estimate his value to the team. Joe is one man who never fails to come across in a pinch. He has the ability to keep his head and do his work under any circumstances.

SMITH, Tackle

"Red" Smith made the team for the first time this year. However, he played his position like a real veteran, and acquitted himself like the real aggressive fighter that he is. They do not "put anything over" on Smith.

W. DUNLAP, Tackle

"Spoony" Dunlap is another Senior who won his wings this year. He is a man who plays hard all the time, and knows what he is doing while he's doing it. Dunlap is a dynamic tackle who never fails to show fight.

WELDON, End

Weldon was one of the strongest defensive ends in the State this season. His stellar work in every game drew forth the favorable comment of the press. The Spartanburg "Herald" was not out of its head when it named him for All-State honors after the P. C.-Wofford game. Weldon is a real football man.

GRAFTON, Quarterback

"Chip" is the lad who saved the day for us on two occasions. He only played approximately two minutes during the year, but what golden minutes they were. In this short period of time he was able, with his steady nerves and "educated toe," to win two games for us by the margin of one point. We shall hear more from this valuable man next year.

KETCHIN, Center

Ketchin has the happy quality of breaking through the opponents line in a pinch. In addition, he snaps the ball perfectly, and does his share of hole-making for the offense. Ketchin has two more years of usefulness before him. Strength to his arms.

GREENE, Fullback

Greene can really hit the center of the line. He may be relied on for a yard or two at will and can usually add to this when it is needed. Dick is a ferocious tackler who is death on end runs.

GREEN, Quarterback

Jimmie Green is one of the best, if not the best, broken field runners in the Palmetto State. In nearly every game he brought the crowd to their feet by his brilliant dashes. P. C. played ten teams this year. Jimmie scored in four of them.

FERRENE, End

Ferrene saw action in the regular end position for nearly the whole season. Matched against men nearly twice his weight, Ferrene succeeded in more than holding his own in every game. He is a sure thing for stardom next year.

One Hundred Sixty-one

FOOTBALL

YOUNG, Quarterback

Young is a Sophomore who shows a great deal of promise. He has a splendid quarterback's head, and knows how to use it to gain ground for the team. He will probably see a great deal of service next year for his punting ability.

O. DUNLAP

Orell Dunlap had his chance a little late in the season, and made good with a vengeance. He has uncanny accuracy with his passing and can hit tackle for sure yardage on any occasion. Dunlap will undoubtedly prove one of the strong Points of the team next year.

McQUEEN, Guard

McQueen is more concentrated wildcat for his size than any man Johnson Field has seen in many a day. Although not not as heavy as most guards, McQueen takes his place along with the biggest and best of them. He has that quality that makes all men equal on the football field.

LYNN, End

Ross Lynn was crippled during the latter part of the season by a serious infection that kept him out of action. However, his performances early in the season were scintillating, and the press comment was lavish. Ross covered himself with glory in the Furman game, in a fashion that will remain in the memory of the present students for a long time.

BASKETBALL

W. ADAIR, Captain; Guard

Bill is an all round player, and at guard he has few equals. Time and again he would take the ball from the back-board of the enemy goal and pass it to a mate to start the P. C. offense. We'll miss you next year, Bill.

L. DUNLAP, Forward

Pete is a product of Thornwell and he showed the same form which won recognition in High School circles. This is Pete's last year and he will be greatly missed in the future.

P. ROBERTS, Forward

Roberts was a sure shot from the side lines, and received many passes from his mates, which he tossed with apparent indifference into the netting. His excellent playing will delight crowds for yet another year.

BASKETBALL

M. ADAIR, Forward

This little blond forward played great ball consistently. He is a good shot and time and again would dribble down the floor to loop the ball into the enemies' basket.

R. CALDWELL, Center

Bobbie was an ideal center. He played the floor in great style, passes accurately, and was able to ring the basket at opportune times. Besides his team work, he was an individual star, being the high scorer in many contests.

F. MASON, Guard

Mason's passing was uncanny, baffling, and unexpected, and through it he was able to advance the ball through impregnable defence. He played a daring consistent game at guard, breaking up much of the opposition's offensive play.

BASKETBALL

O. DUNLAP, Guard

Dunlap in playing his first year for the Blue Stockings, combined hard play with hard endurance and showed up as one of the most rugged of the Blue Stocking defenders. Much is expected of him next year.

J. GREEN, Forward

Had Jimmie the ability to cage the ball, he would be one of the best players P. C. has ever had. His dribbling and all round play has elicited much favorable comment. He will strengthen next years' five.

K. WYATT, Center

This Georgia boy was a real aid to his team, being called on to play both the forward and the center positions. This was his first year on the varsity and we are expecting much of him in the future.

SNIPES, Center

Snipes is another Georgia Boy of great ability. He has two more years to play for his Alma Mater and we are counting on you, Doc.

TRACK

HOGREFE, Captain

Beaten only three times in a long career, this phenomenal sprinter reflects in strength and endurance and courage, the best qualities of the true athlete and sportsman.

MARSHALL

The memory of a black-haired hurdler, fighting to overcome odds, will long linger in the minds of Clinton race fans.

PEARCE

One who never turns his back, but marches breastforward, willing to match a sturdy pair of legs with the best that can wiggle over an obstacle.

One Hundred Seventy-three

FEWELL

Hardworking, patient, faithful in contests with foe, and loving to soar and kiss the sun.

RITCHIE

Next to Wallace Roy of Clemson, the greatest quarter-miler in the inter-collegiate history of South Carolina.

GRAFTON

Graceful, courageous, resourceful, combining the calmness of the Oriental with the fearlessness of the West.

One Hundred Seventy-four

MARTIN

A rugged, long-strided spanner of distances with a fighting spirit and willingness to take punishment.

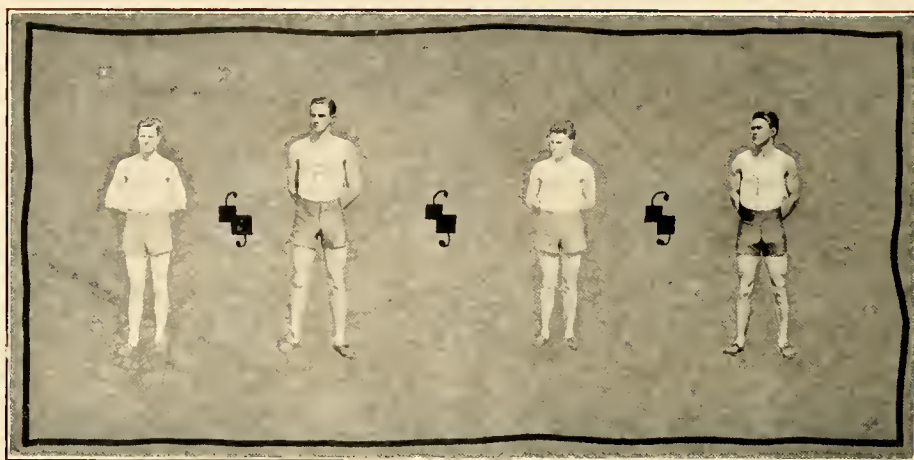

CHAPIN

A real, first-class hurller and a half-miler whose unlucky fall robbed P. C. of a late-season niche in the hall of fame.

TEMPLETON

The first real weight thrower since the days of Griffith, this blond Samson promises to achieve future distinction.

TRACK

MEANS

Reminder of the ancient Greek marathon runners, this lad mixes with red hair the pallor of the distance conquests.

KETCHUM

A loose-jointed eel that wiggles with surprising speed on anything over a quarter of a mile, combining speed with ever increasing endurance.

TRUESDELL

A hard fighting distance runner with plenty of endurance and a lion-like finish rush.

GREEN

A fighting, speedy hurdler, game to the last, and willing to take chances against the foe. A coming man in the broad jump.

GOSNELL

Jumping with better form each day, Gosnell is expected to make a bid for State honors before his sun is paled.

WYATT, II.

A red streak that startled even his friends in the Georgia meet. This young man will make some day a greater and better 440 runner.

CAMPBELL

A quarter-miler that is finishing a gruelling period of training and fighting for an appreciative Alma Mater.

WYATT, K.

He runs the hurdles and soars over the high-jump bar, living up to the ancient proverb that distance lends enchantment.

BASEBALL

OWENS, Captain

"Brick" is playing his third year on the Varsity and is making the last year his best one. After playing third last year he is back at his old position, second base. He covers the key-stone territory like a blanket and is leading the way with his bat.

HART, Catcher

Francis is as scrappy a little receiver as one can find anywhere. Working a pitcher is his specialty, for he possesses an uncanny knack of searching out opponents weak spot.

BRUNSON, Catcher

"Ely" a genius at handling his pitchers, is also a "Big Bertha" on offense. This is his last year, closing a year that is seldom equalled in collegiate circles.

One Hundred Eighty-one

BASEBALL

ADAIR, Pitcher

Bill completed his last year on the Varsity this year and made it memorable by his excellent twirling. We'll miss you, Bill, but our loss is someone else's gain.

ANDERSON, Infield

"Andy" is our utility man. A genius at covering any position on the diamond, and he has from time to time demonstrated this fact to us.

CALDWELL, Pitcher

Bobby is our "old reliable" winning his games with the same old effortless delivery that turned them back so often last year. Keep it up, Bobby.

BASEBALL

ROBERTS, Shortstop

Phil has been shifted to short stop and makes a fitting running mate for "Brick" Owens. With this combination our infield works like a twenty-one jeweled Elgin. Phil has another year on the Varsity.

MASON, Centerfield

"Osie" Mason in centerfield has been and will be making the hard ones look easy and the easy ones look hard. At the bat he takes an unhealthy cut—for the opposition; and when he connects its just too bad.

PERRY, Leftfield

The way "Kink" Perry grabs a baseball on the run or at a standstill is something phenomenal—or else. At the crack of the bat he's off like a rabbit; and if he doesn't get the old pill, its bound to have been a hit a long time before he started.

One Hundred Eighty-three

BASEBALL

O. DUNLAP, Outfield

Orell, of football and basketball fame, has now turned his talent to shagging them in the outfield. Only a Sophomore, he bades fair to go far in the baseball world in the coming years.

ODIORNE, Third Base

Playing his first year of baseball for P. C., "Odie" is coming through in big league style. He is holding down the hottest corner in baseball, and his fielding and hitting are going to help win baseball games for P. C. this year and two more years to follow.

BABB, Left Field

So far this season, Joe hasn't had much chance to show his wares, but on those rare occasions he has come through like a trooper. As the season progresses, Joe is sure to contribute materially to the win column for P. C.

BASEBALL

GREENE, R., First Base

Dick is playing his first year on the Varsity. While playing a fast and heady game on defense, he excels in the slugging department, hitting them far, wide and handsome.

YOUNG, Pitcher

"Bevo" is the youngest of our pitchers, having just come from the "Rat" team of last year. With plenty of stuff and a cool pitching head, he ranks as a safe bet.

LYNN, Outfield

Turning from the gridiron, Ross donned the uniform of the diamond squad and proceeded to snag 'em in the outfield. A timely hitter and a good base runner—he has more than once proven himself an asset to the team.

Ads and Satire

Jokes

Billy B: "Are you going to get a new car this year?"

Potty Shaw: "Yes. That is, as soon as I've paid for the one that I had before the one I've got now."

Frank R.: "Why do you always hold my hands when I make love to you?"

Luby: "I want to be sure that you haven't got your fingers crossed."

"Did you miss that train, sir?" asked the agent.

Sessions: "No! I didn't like the looks of it so I chased it out of the station."

When Wee Willie catches you spitting tobacco juice on the library floor, be nonchalant and light out.

Dean Brown: "There's a student in this class who's making a jack ass of himself. When he's finished, I'll commence."

"Have you a cocktail shaker at your house?"

"No, she's at finishing school."

"Rat Caesar": "Your petticoat shows."

She (snootily): "What does it show?"

"Rat Caesar": "That you're old fashioned."

Beck: "Honestly, honey, you're the first girl I ever loved."

She: "Gosh, you must think I don't realize it."

Jokes

Judge Elliott: "Let's sit this one out; no one will be the wiser."

She: "Oh, yes; you will."

Jimmie Reid (Before Glee Club trip): "I do not want to go with Marshall Dendy, because I cannot talk freely, I do not want to go with Clay because I cannot talk at all."

Jack O'Neal: "I do not enjoy Galsworthy's Works."

Dr. Woody: "Just as I expected, Mr. O'Neal, his works are read by intelligent people."

Fant: "I never knew love was like this."

Cleon: "Neither did I; I thought there were more flowers and candy to it."

Wee Willie: "Will you marry me?"

She: "I'm afraid not."

Willie: "Aw come on, be a support."

Agnes: "I'd like to have a little home all of my own."

Gaston: "Woudn't that be great? Then we could get married."

Prof. Martin: "You look awfully sleepy son, What's wrong?"

Rat Leath: "Somebody told me if I waited in front of Smyth Hall I'd hear the college yell, and it didn't say a word all night."

Ellis: "What do you mean by a soul kiss?"

Telford: "Kiss my foot."

Preston: "Sweetheart, you aren't sick are you?"

She: "No, but I'd hate to yawn."

Leader: "The next piece will be the Alma Mater."

Reid: "Gee, we just finished playing that."

Jim Boyd Kennedy: "Men of my type are not running loose."

Fair Spinster Lady: "Of course not, that is what the police department is for."

Stud Rogers (In Dentist's Chair): "Whew, my head aches terribly."

Dentist (Absently): "Yes, yes, I'll fill it in just a moment."

"Hist, Spence, shall we go to the fire sale?"

"Nay, nay, Dan; I have no wish to buy a fire."

Dr. Woodworth: "Mr. Shaw I thought nothing of studying five hours a night."

Mr. Shaw: "Well, I don't think so much of it myself."

Alumnus: "Are you a letter man?"

Whit Jordan: "No! She might want to but I don't letter."

Patricia: "You beast!"

Mac: "You animal trainer."

Tommy Grafton (Politely): "Won't you take your things off and stay awhile?"

She: "Say, what do you think I am?"

Sal: "Have you ever been kissed by a big strong, handsome man?"

She: "No, could you fix it up for me some night."

"Say, that guy Marshall, was so lubricated last night that he sold the Post Office."

Frosh: "Well, why so down in the mouth about it."

Phil Roberts: "Because I bought it."

Garageman: "Check your oil."

Dr. Jones: "No, I'll take it with me."

Dr. Sturg: "What is a flame test?"

Frosh: "Ask her to go out some evening on a trolley."

You Will Find The "Pot of Gold"

THE Pot of Gold will be found by you in later years. It will be in the form of memories of friends, times, places and events, all held together in the form of this, your own annual. In no other form or book is it held together or placed on such a permanent record in such completeness. It records four full years that in later life you would not exchange for any other time in your life. This is truly your "Pot of Gold."

We are happy to have been the instrument by which this is made possible. To those of you that we have met and know, our wishes for your future will be only the best. To those of you that we have not known personally we can only say that it is OUR loss.

“There is an honor in business that is the fine gold of it; that reckons with every man justly; that loves light; that regards kindness and fairness more highly than goods or prices or profits. It becomes a man more than his furnishings or his house. It speaks for him in the heart of everyone. His friendships are serene and secure. His strength is like a young tree by a river.”
